How to use your Pulse Oximeter

Insert the supplied AAA batteries before first use of your device. After properly installing the batteries, pinch the device open.

Place one finger between the rubber cushions of the clip. Make sure the finger is in the correct orientation (nail facing up).
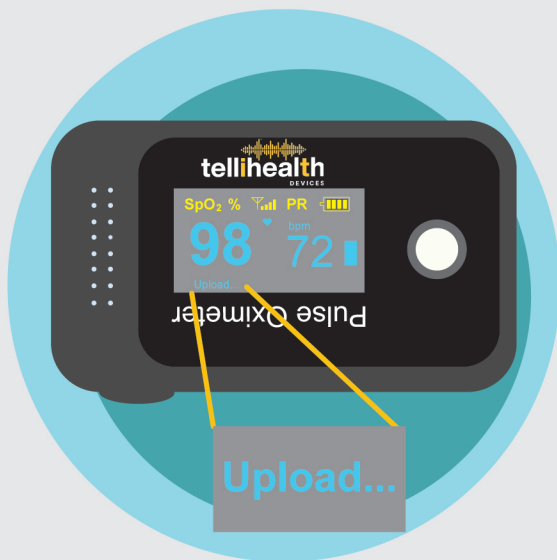

Press the white button to start measurement.

Do not remove your finger for a minimum of 30 seconds. The display will begin to display data.

1

2

3

4

Once you get your reading, it will display "Upload".

Remove the device from your finger and wait

The device will turn off automatically after displaying "Thank you"

Upload...

Upload.................Success

Thank you

5

6

7